Instructions

As a group, sit down and evaluate your meetings. Are they sustainable? Equal? Are there ways they could be improved?

Together, create a set of achievable goals for the group to work towards in the next year. Think of small steps that will need to be taken throughout the year to achieve them.

Create pictograms for your goals and display them, along with the steps to achieve them, within your meeting place.

Create some criteria to check how well you're doing and choose some meetings throughout the year where you can evaluate your progress.
